2008 CHRISTMAS MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN OF THE NATIONAL SOCIALIST AMERICAN LABOR PARTY

A CHALLENGE TO PRESERVE OUR NATION & CULTURE FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS

Greetings fellow National Socialists, I wish you and your families a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. In preparing this Christmas message, I felt it necessary to prepare you for the daunting task that lay ahead for National Socialists and patriots. In order to do this, I feel it important to reflect on what is at stake and to review with you just how cunning and organized our enemies are.

The fact that we now have our first African-American President is neither historic nor surprising nor relevant. In fact Mr. Obama is probably more culturally White when push comes to shove, given he was abandoned shortly after birth by his African Father and raised by his white Mother and White Grand Parents. Mr. Obama's policies of socialism and neo-communism are far more frightening than his being half African.

America is entering a frightening time for hard working Americans who value work and traditional values. This along with the Zionist threat is our real concern as they attempt to integrate their Zionist, Marxist, political correctness and decadent agenda on America., "Some call it Marxism -- I call it Judaism." (The American Bulletin, Rabbi S. Wise, May 5, 1935)., "Marxism is the modern form of Jewish prophecy." (Reinhold Niebur, Speech before the Jewish Institute of Religion, New York October 3, 1934)

Make no mistake about it when Mr. Obama said it was good to spread the wealth around, his Jewish Zionist handlers met it and will do so at the expense of the American Middle Class. Be not surprised at an Obama Collectivization, much on the scale of Stalin's during the 1920's. Of course it will be colored under a very Madison Avenue Zionist marketing campaign. Watch for a return of colorful videos produced by the Weinstein's.

We face a daunting task. The corporate media will act as his mouth piece as he engages in their ultimate dream of exciting social experiments. The Republicans, so ridden with fear of collective guilt, they will offer no opposition, will not place no holds on Mr. Obama's activist judicial nominees and will offer not a single filibuster when Mr. Obama's fundamentally changes the fabric of American Civilization. "Israel controls the Senate...around 80 percent are completely in support of Israel; anything Israel wants. Jewish influence in the House of Representatives is even greater." (They Dare to Speak Out, Paul Findley, p. 66, speaking of a statement of Senator J. William Fulbright said in 1973)

Our Nation, Our Values, our Christian Religion and values are under assault, "Today the Gentile Christians who claim of holy right have been led in the wrong path. We, of the Jewish Faith have tried for centuries to teach the Gentiles a Christ never existed, and that the story of the Virgin and of Christ is, and always has been, a fictitious lie. In the near future, when the Jewish people take over the rule of the United States, legally under our god, we will create a new education system, providing that our god is the only one to follow, and proving that the Christ story is a fake...Christianity will be abolished." (M.A. Levy, Secretary of the World League of Liberal Jews, in a speech in Los Angeles, California, August, 1949)

This leaves National Socialists with a unique opportunity, the opportunity to build a

REAL OPPOSITION PARTY, A REAL PARTY OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE, A REAL POLITICAL PARTY OF AMERICAN VALUES

This will not be an easy task. We must start now. First we must think. We can no longer be angry, this turns people off and away we can no longer yell and shout. We must now articulate issues in a rationale manner.

Hundreds of thousands of people are now looking for a political home. They know the Republican Party especially has betrayed them. Many others are very fearful of the Obama wave of extremism and will wish to organize with a Party willing to stand up for them and with them.

Our challenge is to unite, end the bitter internal strife that has plagued America's National Socialists and ask ourselves if it is more important to fight ourselves or fight for our Nation and our people?

Our enemies are organized, disciplined and set out a plan and followed it. Let us just look at the (12) main goals of the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion, this was the Zionists master plan:

Jewish objectives as outlined in Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion:

- 1) Banish God from the heavens and Christianity from the earth.
- 2) Allow no private ownership of property or business.
- 3) Abolish marriage, family and home. Encourage sexual promiscuity, homosexuality, adultery, and fornication.
- 4) Completely destroy the sovereignty of all nations and every feeling or expression of patriotism.
- 5) Establish a one-world government through which the Luciferian Illuminati elite can rule the world. All other objectives are secondary to this one supreme purpose.
- 6) Take the education of children completely away from the parents. Cunningly and subtly lead the people thinking that compulsory school attendance laws are absolutely necessary to prevent illiteracy and to prepare children for better positions and life's responsibilities. Then after the children are forced to attend the schools get control of normal schools and teacher's colleges and also the writing and selection of all text books.
- 7) Take all prayer and Bible instruction out of the schools and introduce pornography, vulgarity, and courses in sex. If we can make one generation of any nation immoral and sexy, we can take that nation.
- 8) Completely destroy every thought of patriotism, national sovereignty, individualism, and a private competitive enterprise system.

9) Circulate vulgar, pornographic literature and pictures and encourage the unrestricted sale and general use of alcoholic beverage and drugs to weaken and corrupt the youth.

10) Foment, precipitate and finance large scale wars to emasculate and bankrupt the nations and thereby force them into a one-world government.

11) Secretly infiltrate and control colleges, universities, labor unions, political parties, churches, patriotic organizations, and governments. These are direct quotes from their own writings (The Conflict of the Ages, by Clemens Gaebelien pp. 100-102).

12) The creation of a World Government.

Can any of us look at any of these and see that they are succeeding? One world government is well on the way via Trade Agreement like NAFTA, GATT, and the WTO. Our society's moral compass has been thrown into the sewer of pornography of prostitution, gay marriage, and disposable spouses; in fact couples rarely marry when they have children. Parents are forced to accept schooling that they oppose and California has all but outlawed home schooling.

So, while National Socialists fight each other over insignificant drama, our Society, Culture and our children's future is being lost. It is our fault. "The non-Europeanization of America is heartening news of an almost transcendental quality." (Ben Wattenberg, Jewish 'philosopher,' in The Good News, The Bad News, p.

We have a unique opportunity, there has never been a better and ripe opportunity for our Movement than now, it is now up to us.....

Are we real National Socialists?

Can we build a Movement that places the Movement ahead of personalities?

Are we intellectually sound enough to be a Party rather than a gang?

Can we admit our mistakes and grow from them?

Can we build a unified National Socialist Movement and all be apart of something larger then ourselves?

An Open Letter to Barack Obama

Are you a Natural Born Citizen of the U.S.?

Are you legally eligible to hold the Office of President?

Dear Mr. Obama:

On October 24, 2008, a federal judge granted your request to dismiss a lawsuit by Citizen Philip Berg, who challenged your eligibility under the “Natural Born Citizen” clause of the U.S. Constitution to legally hold the office of President of the United States of America.

Mr. Berg presented factual evidence to the Court in support of his claim that you are either a citizen of your father’s native Kenya by birth, or that you became a citizen of Indonesia, relinquishing your prior citizenship when you moved there with your mother in 1967.

In your response to the lawsuit, you neither denied Mr. Berg’s claims nor submitted any evidence which would refute his assertions. Instead, you argued that the Court lacked the jurisdiction to determine the question of your legal eligibility because Mr. Berg lacked “standing.”

Astonishingly, the judge agreed, simply saying, “[Mr. Berg] would have us derail the democratic process by invalidating a candidate for whom millions of people voted and underwent excessive vetting during what was one of the most hotly contested presidential primary [sic] in living memory.”

Unfortunately, your response to the legal claim was clearly evasive and strikingly out of character, suggesting you may, in fact, lack a critical Constitutional eligibility necessary to assume the Office of President: i.e., that you are not a “natural born” citizen of the United States or one who has relinquished his American citizenship.

Before you can exercise any of the powers of the United States, you must prove that you have fully satisfied each and every eligibility requirement that the Constitution mandates for any individual's exercise of those powers.

Regardless of the tactics chosen in defending yourself against the Berg lawsuit, significant questions regarding your legal capacity to hold this nation's highest office have been put forth publicly, and you have failed to directly refute them with documentary evidence that is routinely available to any bona fide, natural born U.S. Citizen.

As one who has ventured into the fray of public service of his own volition, seeking to possess the vast powers of the Office of President, you should expect to produce evidence of your citizenship to answer the questions and allay the concerns of the People. Indeed, as the one seeking the office, you are under a moral, legal, and fiduciary duty to proffer such evidence to establish your eligibility as explicitly mandated by Article II of the Constitution.

Should you proceed to assume the office of the President of the United States as anything but a bona fide natural born citizen of the United States that has not relinquished that citizenship, you would be inviting a national disaster, placing our Republic at great risk from untold consequences. For example:

- Neither the Electoral College on December 15, nor the House of Representatives on January 6 would be able to elect you, except as a poseur - a usurper;
- As a usurper, you would be unable to take the required "Oath or Affirmation" of office on January 20 without committing the crime of perjury or false swearing, for being ineligible for the Office of the President you cannot faithfully execute the Office of the President of the United States;
- Your every act in the usurped Office of the President would be a criminal offense as an act under color of law that would subject the People to the deprivation of their constitutional rights, and entitling you to no obedience whatsoever from the People;
- as a usurper acting in the guise of the President you could not function as the Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy and of the militia of the several states, as such forces would be under no legal obligation to remain obedient to you;

- No one in any civilian agency in the Executive Branch would be required to obey any of your proclamations, executive orders or directives, as such orders would be legally VOID;
- Your appointment of Ambassadors and Judges to the Supreme Court would be VOID *ab initio (i.e., from the beginning), no matter what subsequent actions the Senate might take as well as rendering any such acts by such appointed officials void as well;
- Congress would not be able to pass any new laws because they would not be able to acquire the signature of a bona fide President, rendering all such legislation legally VOID;
- As a usurper, Congress would be unable to remove you from the Office of the President on Impeachment, inviting certain political chaos including a potential for armed conflicts within the General Government or among the States and the People to effect the removal of such a usurper.

As an attorney and sitting U.S. Senator, I'm sure you agree that our Constitution is the cornerstone of our system of governance. It is the very foundation of our system of Law and Order – indeed, it is the supreme law of the land. I'm sure you also agree that its precise language was no accident and cannot be ignored if Individual, unalienable, natural Rights, Freedoms and Liberties are to be protected and preserved.

As our next potential President, you have a high-order obligation to the Constitution (and to those who have fought and died for our Freedom) that extends far beyond that of securing a majority of the votes of the Electoral College. No matter your promises of change and prosperity, your heartfelt intent or the widespread support you have garnered in seeking the highest Office of the Land, the integrity of the Republic and Rule of Law cannot, -- must not -- be put at risk, by allowing a constitutionally ineligible person to sit, as a usurper, in the Office of the President.

No matter the level of practical difficulty, embarrassment or disruption of the nation's business, we must -- above all -- honor and protect the Constitution and the divine, unalienable, Individual Rights it guarantees, including the Right to a President who is a natural born citizen of the United States of America that has not relinquished his American citizenship. Our nation has endured similar disruptions in the past, and will weather this crisis as well. Indeed, it is both yours and the People's mutual respect for, and commitment to, the Constitution and Rule of Law that insures the perpetuation of Liberty.

As a long time defender of my state and federal Constitutions, and in consideration of the lack of sufficient evidence needed to establish your credentials as President, I am compelled to lodge this Petition for Redress of Grievances and public challenge to you.

Make no mistake: This issue IS a Constitutional crisis. Although it will not be easy for you, your family or our Republic, you have it within your ability to halt this escalating crisis by either producing the certified documents establishing beyond question your eligibility to hold the Office of President, or by immediately withdrawing yourself from the Electoral College process.

With due respect, we hereby request that you make public the following documents

- (a) a certified copy of your “vault” (original long version) birth certificate

- (b) certified copies of all reissued and sealed birth certificates in the names Barack Hussein Obama, Barry Soetoro, Barry Obama, Barack Dunham and Barry Dunham;
- (c) a certified copy of your Certification of Citizenship;
- (d) a certified copy of your Oath of Allegiance taken upon age of maturity;
- (e) certified copies of your admission forms for Occidental College, Columbia University and Harvard Law School; and
- (f) certified copies of any court orders or legal documents changing your name from Barry Soetoro.

In the alternative, in defense of the Constitution, and in honor of the Republic and that for which it stands, please announce before such time your withdrawal from the 2008 Presidential election process.

“In a government of laws, the existence of the government will be imperiled if it fails to observe the law scrupulously. Our government is the potent, the omnipresent teacher. For good or for ill, it teaches the whole people by its example. Crime is contagious. If the government becomes a lawbreaker, it breeds contempt for law; it invites every man to become a law unto himself; it invites anarchy.”

Olmstead v. United States, 277 U.S. 438, 469-471.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation in this matter.

THE WORDS : NSALP'S & NATIONAL SOCIALISM'S WORDS

We have received many inquiries as to why we have not posted nor use The 14 Words.

We do not, Not use them out of any opposition or disagreement.

It is important to understand the NSALP's philosophy and our Principles. Our commitment is to National Socialism and to bringing National Socialism into the political process, this means elections, Issues, debates and discussion. Our loyalty is to National Socialism and not to individuals. One of the problems with National Socialism in America has been the "Groupie Syndrome", whereby various groups fight each other over whose leader is better. The Zionist love this as we make asses out of ourselves and obtain no political traction other than provide great entertainment.

The NSALP has searched for a sort of motto however that is in line with National Socialism, in line with the preservation of our culture and volk.

As of this day, we have adopted the following:

“There are many things we can alter, we can adapt ourselves to progress and learn new and valuable lessons; but let us keep our national character and respect our traditions, let us beware of becoming a people without roots..”

Field Marshall Albert Kesselring, 1953

The Field Marshall wrote these words after the war and after having been sentenced to death and having been in prison. He was released and died within a few years. Anyone who thinks these words are not valid today, is fooling themselves.

These words have been posted on our web site, WWW.NSALP.ORG, and will be printed on every NSALP Publication.

People of Lakota Launch Private Bank for Only Silver and Gold Currencies

Hill City, Lakota - November 24, 2008 - In a stunning development, the Free & Independent People of Lakota announced today the introduction of the world's first non-reserve, non-fractional bank that accepts only silver and gold currencies for deposit.

"Today is a great day for us, a day that we begin to exercise our rights as a sovereign people with strength and pride," comments Canupa Gluha Mani, Tetuwan Council Judicial Member of the Cante Tenza "Strong Heart" Warrior Society. Mani's 2500 member warrior society has contracted to provide private security services for the Free Lakota Bank.

"We invite people of any creed, faith or heritage to unite in an effort to reclaim control of wealth. It is our hope that other tribal nations and American citizens recognize the importance of silver and gold as currency and decide to mirror our system of honest trade." Mani, also known as Duane Martin Sr, is a member of the delegation that declared Lakota independence on December 17th, 2007.

The launch of the Free Lakota Bank is also an incredible victory for StrikeForce Technologies, the access control experts providing depositor Out-of-Band Authentication. As the Free Lakota Bank does not require a name, photo identification or social security number to transact, StrikeForce's technology met the challenge of limiting fraud without requiring controversial biometric technology.

The People of Lakota invite depositors to establish accounts and invest in the Free Lakota Bank's General Investment Fund, the fund it uses to develop profitable free-market enterprise inside Lakota territory. Mani comments that the nation despises donations and charity, and instead insists instead on "earning our wealth by creating value for those that place their faith and trust in our system."

The Free Lakota Bank issues an American Open Currency Standard Approved currency, making it readily accepted for trade by over 10,000 merchants and businesses across the continent.

REFLECTIONS ON NATIONAL SOCIALISM

Voices from national Socialists from all over our Nation

From Robert:

"Wishy Washy Weekend Warriors"

There is a lot of information that is being passed back and forth which is good to educate ourselves with. But we already know that the Jews, the government, the blacks and spics are screwing us over. We need to talk about what to do about it, and we need to be on the front lines.

Most people are gambling that they'll be dead before the shit hits the fan. Or they think they'll have enough "friends" who can barter and help out when times get tough.

The problem that we face is not going to get any better unless you are willing to face it head on and fight. For all of the "turning the other cheek" philosophy that some people like to preach, I don't think that we can sit back and let our race and this country be destroyed without putting up a fight. It is about sticking your neck out. But doing it with caution and planning and a firm conviction that, yes, it is the right thing to do.

You can judge if something is good or bad by the results that it brings. I'm sick of people saying, "yeah, I know things are bad, but whatcha going to do?" Which is like saying, I'm just too lazy and occupied with hanging out that I don't have the time to be interested."

This country wasn't founded by people who "got along", but people who stood up for what they believed in. You can just imagine at that last meeting before the Revolutionary War begun, some jerk-off sitting in the back row stood up and said. "Will you guys just listen to yourselves? You're talking treason to the King!" You're talking about people getting shot and killed. Yeah, we're over-taxed and getting screwed over, but this crazy talk." It's a good they didn't go along with that idea.

We can do something, or we can sit around and wait for the slaughter. It's a choice. But not much of one. Sometimes it looks like people who are partying their lives away and are having a good time, but they aren't They are trying to run and hide. They don't want to be "disturbed" by the truth.

We need action, and to do this you must be active in the "movement". If this means standing on the front lines and fighting for your race then do it. We all joined the "movement" for saving the White Race. And we can't win this war by sitting at home hidden from the world, talking about the good old days. Nothing was ever built by doing nothing!

When will you care enough to fight for your race?

Here are the facts, your reason to fight; our people compose about 7% of the earth's population.

Is this not a good enough reason?

You can have all the special rights, benefits in this world, but only if your skin is black, brown, red, or yellow. White people are shit out of luck.

It is time that we let everyone know we are sick of it. And the only way to do this is being active in the cause.

Just imagine what things will be like in the future, things are already a mess now but it will get worse.

If you are wanting to pass the bucket sort of speak off to the next person so he can do all the work for you so you can keep hiding away then you yourself are just another problem that we are fighting against.

If you won't fight for yourself then do it for your family's future, fight for the existence for the Whit Race!

Do it because it is the right thing to do!

WHY DON'T WE SEE ONE WORD OF THIS IN ANY OF THE MEDIA?

Love him or hate him, we all remember how the press went to great lengths to find out every move that President Bush made ... finally unable to come up with anything factual, so they created it! When their accusations were proven empty, they refused to retract one word of the fraud they perpetrated on the American people.

Dan Rather lost his job over fraudulent documents because common people like you & me reached out and ripped CBS to pieces. They couldn't stand the loss of sponsors OR viewers!

The same Media went to great lengths to scandalize & destroy Sarah Palin. She maintains a 91% approval rating among voters from all parties, thanks to the Internet and investigative journalists who don't work for the mainstream media.

NOW ----- The Supreme Court has scheduled a Conference for Dec 5th about Obama's

U. S. Citizenship. STILL, not a word about any of this from the Media. If it were not for the Internet and talk radio, American citizens would become the servants of a dishonest & conspiratorial Media.

THINK ABOUT IT. IT DIDN'T USED TO BE THIS WAY! How much longer are we going to sit on our hands & say not a word?

AND DON'T THINK THE MEDIA SIMPLY DOESN'T KNOW - THEY ARE GETTING POUNDED WITH EMAILS ABOUT IT!!!

Obama could not get a simple security clearance with the information the government has on him -
--- NOBODY COULD!

NOW he is privy to every top secret America has!

What is going on??? WHERE ARE THE GOOD PEOPLE IN THIS COUNTRY - ARE YOU OUT THERE???

WHAT ARE YOU DOING TO SAVE THIS COUNTRY????

Reflections by Kurt:

"National Socialism is Patriotism; National Socialism is standing up for America, Americans, and the founding principals of America. National Socialism is community; American National Socialism is Nationalism and Populism".

"Today the Gentile Christians who claim of holy right have been led in the wrong path. Adolf Hitler Quote for December 2008.....

The Fuhrer on 3 main goals for National Socialism:

“1: To prevent the threatened communist revolution, to build up a National State which shall unite the interests of the different classes and castes, and to maintain the idea of property as a basis of our culture.

2: To solve the most difficult of social problems by bringing back millions of our unfortunate unemployed into productive work.

3: To establish an authoritative Government, supported by the will and confidence of the Nation, which shall make our great people an acceptable partner of the other States of the world”

THE NATIONAL SOCIALIST AMERICAN LABOR PARTY

WHAT WE STAND FOR

The NATIONAL SOCIALIST AMERICAN LABOR PARTY are NOT White Separatists, reactionaries, right-wing extremists, or militia types. Nor are the NSALP Neo Nazis who parade in demonstrations screaming in profane and offensive diatribes that only give opponents of National Socialism an example of what National Socialists are not and should not be. Nor does the NSALP associate with any type of hate group like the Klan or Skinheads who kill people in their pathetic initiations and events of self loathing.

We are American National Socialists, we believe in National Socialist ideals and a National Socialist World View. We believe in Honor, Loyalty, Discipline and Self Respect. We believe National Socialism is something much larger than ourselves. American National Socialism is NOT about hate. American National Socialism is Nationalist and Populist.

Enemies of National Socialism will always deride us as "haters", yet our goals and objectives are based on love of our Nation, Culture, History and a future for our Families.

An American National Socialist's priority is, to stand up, defend, and fight for a wholesome and moral Society, both now and in the future for ourselves and those who will come after us.

A true National Socialist is an individual to whom Honor, Integrity and above all COURAGE OF CONVICTION are supreme.

A National Socialist does not think twice to protect those who need protection. A National Socialist is willing to sacrifice for right, not just speak meaningless and empty phrases that stand for nothing.

A National Socialist does NOT shrink from his or her DUTY and responsibility, and above all a National Socialist man never fails in his responsibility to his wife and children, an individual who fails this test is the ultimate traitor.

A National Socialist is always pragmatic, educated, well read on the issues, intelligent, and above all a critical thinker who does not engage in wishful thinking in place of reality.

The National Socialist American Labor Party rejects and opposes the following:

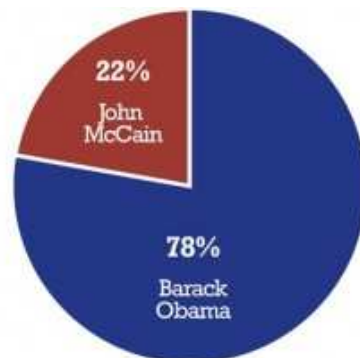

1. All attempts to banish God and Christianity out of public life.
2. Current attempts by purveyors of Zionists and political and social correctness to abolish traditional marriage and other social and family institutions and to destroy patriotism and sovereignty.
3. Erosion and attempts to limit private ownership property & business
4. One-World Government and Agreements that lead to the establishment thereof such as NAFTA, GATT and the WTO ruled by Special Interest Groups, Corporate Interests and Secret Elites such as the Bildaburg and Skull & Bones Societies.

5. Sexual promiscuity, degenerate art, pornography, sex trafficking, exploitation of women and children, drugs, and the corruption of our youth. These elements only serve to allow Elites to rule over and control the people by way of corrupting the social norms of our Society.
6. Consolidation of the economic system under a few corporate interests
7. Consolidation of media under a few corporate interests
8. Restricting education decisions from parents and forcing parents to send their children to sub standard schools or to participate in curriculum that parents oppose, the erosion of home schooling. Teaching of Marxist Zionist political correctness over parents objections.
9. The engagement of foreign policy, war, and police actions for corporate interests or foreign interests.
10. Infiltration of government by foreign nationals under the guise of "dual citizenship". No one can serve two masters.

"Israel controls the Senate...around 80 percent are completely in support of Israel; anything Israel wants. Jewish influence in the House of Representatives is even greater." (They Dare to Speak Out, Paul Findley, p. 66, speaking of a statement of Senator J. William Fulbright said in 1973)

NAZI FASHION

Thor Steinar and the Changing Look of the German Far Right

By Rachel Nolan in Berlin

Shaved heads, bomber jackets, black boots with white shoelaces -- it used to be easy to spot a neo-Nazi. But young far-right extremists are wearing more stylish and more coded clothes.

Lilian Engelmann never thought she would see neo-Nazis on her block. The young art curator works in a gallery in the trendy district of Mitte, a neighborhood in central Berlin. Her neighbors include an international cinema, designer hat store, Vietnamese restaurant and -- as of last February -- a store called Tönsberg, which sells clothing popular among right-wing extremists.

"By coming here, the neo-Nazis tried to come into the center of society," Engelmann told SPIEGEL ONLINE. Once local residents and shopowners learned that Tönsberg planned to sell the clothing brand Thor Steinar, they organized against the store. The group led by Engelmann and other shopowners called itself the "Mitte Initiative Against the Far Right," and mounted regular protests.

Neo-Nazis are a fringe group in Germany, where Holocaust denial, praise of Adolf Hitler and the display of Nazi symbols are all illegal. The Office for the Protection of the Constitution, the government's domestic intelligence agency, estimates there are about 40,000 active members of the German far right. The agency can shut down Kameradschaften, gangs or brotherhoods which tend to be violent, but many other groups in the neo-Nazi scene often fly under the legal radar -- like rock bands with suggestive lyrics or stylish clothing companies with coded symbols. As long as they don't display swastikas or explicitly support Hitler or his party, these groups are left alone.

Do These Sneakers Make Me Look Neo-Nazi?

Thor Steinar goods were banned in 2004 because of the logo's similarity to symbols worn by SS officers. But the company has rebranded, and its new look is legal. This presents a dilemma for Engelmann's group. Symbols and speech not obviously related to Nazism are protected by German law. So instead of trying to run the store out, her group decided to educate passersby about Tönsberg.

The group won permission from authorities in Mitte to set up a public display detailing the history of the Holocaust, the recent far right scene and neo-Nazi symbols and culture. Three tall boxes plastered with dossiers dot Rosa-Luxemburg Street in Berlin, where Engelmann's gallery stands near Tönsberg.

"We've had people come in and ask, 'If I buy these sneakers, are they sending neo-Nazi signals?'" said Engelmann. "People have a better idea of what kind of store it is."

"People" includes passersby, but also landlords. On Oct. 14, a Berlin court ruled that Tönsberg's landlord was allowed to kick the store out because Tönsberg had failed to fully disclose what types of products it would sell. A similar court decision on Oct. 28 will clear out a store selling Thor Steinar clothing in Magdeburg, a city in eastern Germany. A Hamburg store shut down in early October after protests. Three further stores in Germany sell Thor Steinar goods, but a legal decision on one of them, in Leipzig, is pending.

The brand also stirred a recent controversy in Berlin after a plainclothes policeman wore a Thor Steinar shirt while on duty at a demonstration to mark the anniversary of Kristallnacht -- the Nazi-orchestrated pogroms that swept Germany on November 9, 1938. Dieter Glietsch, head of police in Berlin, said ignorance of the brand was not an excuse. "That a police officer walks around wearing Thor Steinar clothes during the anniversary of the pogrom calls for a thorough investigation," he told the Tagesspiegel newspaper. "It is not as if in Berlin people don't know what the label stands for."

Still, the far right isn't as recognizable as it used to be. Only old-school neo-Nazis shave their heads and tie up their black boots with white laces. Among the younger crowd, a new look is in. Even Engelmann describes Thor Steinar designs as "stylish and fitted," and sometimes its logos are all that set it apart from other casual sportswear.

Mixed Messages

Many of the symbols are straightforward. On one Thor Steinar T-shirt, the word kontaktfreudig is splashed across red splotches that look like spatters of blood. The word could be translated as "outgoing," or more literally, "happy to make contact." The display on Rosa-Luxemburg Street includes clothing with common symbols like an eagle for German pride, or "18" and "88" for "Adolf Hitler" and "Heil Hitler" -- numbers freighted with meaning because of the position of the initials in the alphabet.

Some mainstream clothing companies also hold significance for neo-Nazis. Shirts from the British company Lonsdale, covered in jackets unzipped to display the "NS" -- for National Socialism -- have a meaning in Germany that would go unnoticed in Britain or the United States. The German far right likes the "N" on New Balance shoes for the same reason.

But Thor Steinar hardly a mainstream brand appropriated by a few extreme customers. The German company "is demonstrably for the scene, by the scene," said Esther Lehnert at the Mobile Counseling Team Berlin, a non-profit that identifies trends in the German far right. Part of Lehnert's job is to instruct teachers in how to identify and reach out to students who may become involved in neo-Nazism. She describes an alarming uptick in youth participation in what's become a "trendy culture."

"They are getting harder to spot," she said, taking a picture out of a folder showing far-right and far-left activists facing off at a march. Both groups wore Che Guevara T-shirts and checked scarves -- long a leftist symbol of solidarity with Palestinians. But the far right co-opted both symbols, she explained, just as neo-Nazis have taken to wearing all black, which used to be an anarchist fashion statement.

Guevara may be the strangest appropriation of all. Neo-Nazis wear his image but don't hesitate to beat up people who look different -- including Latin Americans.

'It's Just a Fashion Label'

Neo-Nazis have been a long-term embarrassment for the German government, which had to beef up security during the 2006 World Cup because of safety concerns for non-white spectators and players. And Germany's domestic intelligence agency describes Thor Steinar as "an identifying mark for right-wing extremists." So why not simply shut the company down?

"It's just a fashion label," a spokesperson for the Office for the Protection of the Constitution told SPIEGEL ONLINE. "We are only watching which symbols they use, to make sure they are not illegal."

The agency has reason to be cautious after its implication in a disastrous effort to outlaw the far right National Democratic Party (NPD) in 2003. Germany's highest court dismissed the case after finding out that important witnesses for the prosecution -- including the NPD head for the state of North Rhine-Westphalia -- worked as informants for the agency. The Federal Constitutional Court ruled that it couldn't ban a party whose policies might have been cast, in part, by government agents.

So groups like Engelmann's are left the task of combating the scene on the local level, and making sure the public knows what neo-Nazis are doing. Thor Steinar has been kicked out of a number of locations, but there is no telling where they will crop up next.

News from across the Pond- National Socialist Party Of Great Britain

National Socialist Party of Great Britain Statement regarding the British National Party (BNP)

The NSPGB is a party dedicated to National Socialism, under the Leadership of Black Swastika the 25 points have been revitalized and upheld as ever. As opposed to attacking others we have concentrated on building our own resources & Party structure.

That the current BNP's Leadership & policies are both multi-racist & politically correct is solely a matter for that Party.

The fact that the BNP contains Jews, non-whites & homosexuals is a matter for that party; however when a lesbian Jewess is endorsed by that Party's leadership then we feel that it is fair to point this out as a REAL difference between their & our philosophy. Now within the past few days, the BNP is once again showings its true colours and has failed its members terribly, the fact that such a list of members should be accessed in such a way to be used to put members, there families including children in danger is very, very wrong besides disgusting.

We feel it fair as well to point out that the BNP has failed once again but this time it has failed its very own members, all such details within the NSPGB are only accessible by the very top leadership, all of which are true proven members, loyal to the cause of both the NSPGB and National Socialism. Our Leader has the final say in all area, especially in such important and sensitive areas such as members details no matter what they maybe.

The fact that the BNP has members who are not proud enough to stand up and say how passionate they feel as being members as of the BNP as well as admit there membership alone shows and proves a lot to us all, it shows the real mindset behind the very people of whom progress relies upon in order for any party to achieve in victory. The NSPGB is happy to admit that all of its members are not only true but that no matter what there profession they are proud to stand up and say yes when asked "Are you a member of the NSPGB?" Only the strong survive in this world and as the years go by this cannot be seen and shown enough, the BNP may have many, many members but when it comes for action, how many of those members can be relied upon to stand up and fight when not one of them is prepared to stand up and admit there very own membership!

When a far right party becomes like the BNP and has the type of people in it such as Jews & non-whites is it at all surprising that something such as this should happen, anyone who really cares about the well being of this country and its native people would never be part of or join a party such as this, it is no surprise either if similar things should happen again in the months to come, the BNP has failed and if anyone should not want to admit it before recent events, they must do so now, what the people of this country need is a true National Socialist party, one which cares for its well being and the well being of its nation too, the NSPGB shall never fail in this under taking, we shall achieve victory but at the same time we shall remain true and loyal to our country and race, for we are the strong and for we are National Socialists!

Heil Hitler!
