Re: Potential Immigration Violation

Dear Director Morton:

First let me express our Party's sympathies on the loss of ICE Agent Jaime Zapta.

My hope is that potential stereotypes will not distract you from the contents of this letter.

Our Party calls your attention to the following news article(s)

<http://www.wmur.com/r/26929328/detail.html>

This news article details the assault of an American Citizen by foreign refugees, ostensibly in the United States on special Visa(s). It is our understanding that in such circumstances, when foreign Nationals commit crimes, especially against a person and in this case a child, the immigration status is revoked and the foreign National(s) is/are deported.

According to information released by the victim child's mother, no meaningful enforcement action has been taken vs. the attackers.

We call on ICE to enforce the law within its jurisdiction and begin a review of the immigration status of those foreign Nationals who appear to have violated their immigration status.

Sincerely,

Richard Miller
