Theodore Roosevelt is universally regarded as one of our greatest Presidents. He is on Mount Rushmore, is considered a great Conservationist, the Rough Rider of San Juan Hill in the Spanish American War and above all a Progressive for his busting of Standard Oil and other Big Trusts, which today would be called Corporations.

So, if we value his policies on conservationism, and corporate accountability, let us also adopt Teddy Roosevelt's Policy on Immigration:

President Theodore Roosevelt on Immigration

"In the first place we should insist that if the immigrant who comes here in good faith becomes American and assimilates himself to us, he shall be treated on the exact equality with everyone else, for it is an outrage to discriminate against any such man because of creed, or birthplace, or origin.

But this is predicated upon the man's becoming in very fact an American, and nothing but an American... There can be no divided allegiance here.

Any man who says he is an American, but something else also, isn't an American at all. We have room for but one flag, the American flag, and this excludes the red flag, which symbolizes all wars against liberty and civilization, just as much as it excludes any foreign flag of a nation to which we are hostile.... We have room for but one language here, and that is the English language... and we have room for but one sole loyalty and that is loyalty to the American people.
